

1. Tax Exemption of Foreign Distributor's Commission

After our investigation conducted with Inland Revenue Board in July 2007, we have received their response of our enquiries on 24.10.2007. Tax exemption will be given to Foreign Distributor if the commission received by them is due to the sales of Nefful Malaysia products outside Malaysia. However, if the commission received is due to the sales of products within Malaysia, there is no tax exemption and please report your annual income to Inland Revenue Board in April of every year. Click here for the Tax Procedure

2. Commission Statement

Our Company do not release and deliver Annual Commission Statement. Therefore, members are required to safe keep all the Commission Statement sent by Company monthly and report it to Inland Revenue Board in April of every year to avoid any loss of your legal rights.

Please write in to company for applying the Annual commission statement at 1/1 ~ 31/3 and company will take 5 days to process. Those who apply after the date will be charging RM 2 for processing fees. Download annual commission statement form
